

Urbana, Ill., 2 Sept., 1902.

H. B. King,

Houston, Texas.

Dear Mrs. King:

In answer to your questions concerning applicants for the position of cataloger in your library, I can only honestly say that I can not favorably recommend Miss Mary E. Sparks. She does not possess tact in any marked degree, and personally she is very unattractive. She is probably a woman of great ability as a scholar, but beyond this I can give no favorable recommendation for her.

Miss Arnold of whom you speak is a very attractive young woman, and her work while in the Library School was of good average quality. I think that you would make no mistake in engaging Miss Arnold to assist you. She would surely be very attractive to the public and you could trust her work.

Yours very sincerely,

Katharine G. Sharp
Director of Lib. School

Urbana, Ill., 2 Sept., 1902.

H. H. Ring,
Houston, Texas.

Dear Mrs. Ring:

In answer to your questions concerning applicants for the position of cataloger in your library, I can only honestly say that I can not favorably recommend Miss Mary E. Sparks. She does not possess tact in any marked degree, and personally she is very unattractive. She is probably a woman of great ability as a scholar, but beyond this I can give not favorable recommendation for her.

Miss Arnold of whom you speak is a very attractive young woman, and her work while in the library school was of good average quality. I think that you would make no mistake in engaging Miss Arnold to assist you. She would surely be very attractive to the public and you could trust her work.

Yours very sincerely,
Katharine L. Sharp [signed]
Director of Lib. School