Changing Spaces in the Library

Here at SSHEL we are gearing up for some changes in our space! Due to the building project in preparation of moving the University Library's rare, special, and archival collections into the Undergraduate Library building, services offered by the Undergraduate Library are being integrated into other campus library spaces. SSHEL collections and services will be moved entirely to our South space in the Main Library, opening up use of the SSHEL North space for library services to undergraduate students and others. These changes are currently scheduled to take place by the fall semester of 2022.
